Column 1	Column 2
(1) States of the Punjab, Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh	31st March, 1965.
(2) States of Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh	30th April, 1965.
(3) State of Gujarat	31st May, 1965.

The 26th December 1964

No. S.O.CBN/2/64—In exercise of the powers conferred on me by Clauses 3, 4, 13, 14A and 17 of the Cotton Control Order, 1955, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, I hereby make the following further amendments in the Textile Commissioner's Notification No. S.O.2168, dated the 11th June 1964, namely :—

In the said Notification,—

I. The existing paragraph 3 shall be numbered 3(i) and after the said sub-paragraph (i) so re-numbered, the following sub-paragraph shall be added, namely :—

“(ii) No manufacturer shall take possession of cotton either in loose condition or in pressed bales out of the kapas purchased by him for which permission in writing has been given by the Textile Commissioner unless such cotton is surveyed by the East India Cotton Association, Ltd., Bombay, in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained. The samples for this purpose shall be drawn by the approved Controllers appointed by the East India Cotton Association, Ltd., Bombay.”

II. after the existing paragraph (4), the following paragraph shall be inserted, namely :—

“(4A) Survey :

(i) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (5) below, no manufacturer shall take delivery of any Indian cotton at a price exceeding the maximum price mentioned in the survey certificate issued in accordance with the provisions herein contained and unless accompanied by the certificate issued in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (11).

(ii) Each application for survey or appeal shall be made by the manufacturer or appellant as the case may be in a form prescribed by the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, and approved by the Textile Commissioner, for the purpose from time to time, and shall be accompanied by the certificate issued in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (11). The certificate issued under paragraph (11), duly endorsed by the Regional Survey Committee or the East India Cotton Association Ltd. shall be returned to the applicant along with the survey certificate.

- (iii) For the purposes of survey, the manufacturer-buyer shall draw the samples at the time of taking delivery of the lot in the presence of the seller, from the stamped bale on the basis of which the delivery is being taken, and shall forward the same duly sealed by both the buyer and the seller, to the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, or the Regional Survey Committee as the case may be.
- (iv) The survey certificate shall show the name of the manufacturer, the name of the seller, the number of bales, the lot number, press running numbers of bales, press marks, date of pressing, serial No. and date of certificate issued by the pressing factory, description (and grade if claimed in case of survey by Regional Survey Committee) as claimed by the applicant, the award under the survey for the grade, staple and description and the maximum price which shall, however, be subject to adjustment in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph 5(ii).
- (v) In such States where more than one variety of cotton is grown in contiguous areas as specified in paragraph 3, applications for only varietal survey shall be made to the Regional Survey Committee which may be appointed by the Textile Commissioner in consultation with the State Government. However, in the States where not more than one variety of cotton is grown in contiguous areas, a Regional Survey Committee may also be appointed if required. Such Regional Survey Committees if and when appointed, shall work under the overall control of the East India Cotton Association Ltd., and shall consist of not less than 4, but not more than 5 members representing growers, trade and industry and a representative of the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay.
- (vi) The Regional Survey Committee may, if so desired by the applicant, also survey the grade of the cotton only up to and inclusive of one grade higher than the basic grade.
- (vii) If either the manufacturer-applicant or the seller is not satisfied with the award of the Regional Survey Committee, he may prefer an appeal to the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay within 8 days of the date of such certificate.
- (viii) In case of quality survey by the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, an appeal may lie with the Textile Commissioner's Appeal Committee known as Ad Hoc Committee within eight days of the date of the survey award.
- (ix) No manufacturer shall take delivery of cotton on the basis of a survey certificate not issued in accordance with the above provisions".

III. In sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (5), after the existing proviso, the following provisos shall be inserted, namely :—

"Provided further that no such cotton shall be considered to be of a quality superior to the basic quality as aforesaid unless its superior staple and class have been certified by the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, or, in appeal, by the Textile Commissioner's Appeal Committee known as Ad Hoc Committee and the maximum price of such cotton shall be in accordance with the description, staple and class mentioned in such certificate.

Provided further that in such States as mentioned below where more than one variety of cotton is grown in contiguous areas, no such cotton shall be considered to be of a variety superior to the variety having the lowest basic ceiling price (as defined below for each State) unless its superior variety is duly certified as such by the Agriculture Department of the State concerned or by the East India Cotton Association Ltd., Bombay, or by a Regional Survey Committee, if any, appointed in this behalf. For this purpose,

- (a) any cotton grown in the States of Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh which is claimed to be of a variety other than Jaima-Vunar 191-3;
- (b) any cotton grown in the States of the Punjab, Uttar Pradesh or Rajasthan, which is claimed to be other than Punjab American 5201 Koker Ginned (excluding Bengal Deshi) shall be subject to the varietal survey as provided above."

IV. After paragraph (10), the following paragraph shall be inserted, namely :—

- (11) (i) No person shall remove any full-pressed bale of cotton on or after 26th December 1964 outside the compound of the factory where it is pressed or shall remove to a warehouse from such factory or shall deliver to any other person or manufacturer unless it is accompanied by a certificate issued by the Manager or owner of the said factory in the form given in Annexure 'B' appended hereto. Such certificate shall be issued not later than three days from the date of pressing.
- (ii) No person shall on or after 26th December 1964 remove outside the compound of the factory where it is pressed any loose cotton or half-pressed bale intended for delivery to a manufacturer without being pressed into full-pressed bales, or shall remove such cotton to a warehouse such factory or shall deliver the same to any other person or manufacturer unless it is accompanied by a certificate issued by the Manager or owner of the said factory in the form given in Annexure 'C' appended hereto. Such certificate shall be issued not later than three days from the date of ginning.
- (iii) All lots of loose cotton or full-pressed bales removed outside the factory where it is ginned or pressed prior to 26th December 1964 shall be certified in the following form, namely :—
